

Social and Personal.

THE many Richmond friends of Mrs. Carroll Jones, of Columbia, S. C., are enjoying seeing her again. She was before her marriage Miss Virginia Allen, of South Third Street, and both she and Mr. Jones are very pleasantly remembered here.

With her mother, Mrs. Allen, and two children she has been attending a large family reunion in the country home of her grandmother, Mrs. West, at Westlands, in Louisa county, where Mr. Jones joined them a few days ago, and together they came to Richmond Sunday evening.

Later they will leave to occupy their new home in Columbia, S. C.

Board Meeting This Morning.
The board of directors of the Young Woman's Christian Association will meet this morning in the association building at 11 o'clock.

As there is much important business to be transacted, every member is urged to be present.

Leave for New York.
A party of six, including Misses Iva Rowlett, Evelyn Doggett, Myrtle Phoenix, Celia Schauf, Cora Eastman, and Irma Taylor of Hampton, Va., left Saturday on the Hamilton for New York for a stay of ten days.

Leave for Hampden-Sidney.
The opening of the various colleges throughout the State takes quite a number of the younger set out of town for the season. Walter Moore, Blair and Moylen Fitz, Frederick Valentine, Wallace and Wyndham Stanton left Saturday afternoon for Hampden-Sidney College.

Miss Doyle at Warm Springs.
Miss Alice Doyle, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. C. E. Doyle, has left Blue Ridge Summit, and is now at the Warm Springs. Miss Doyle is greatly improved, and her many friends regret that she will not return to Richmond until late in the fall.

At Home After Pleasant Outing.
Miss Annie Fontaine Smith has returned to her home in Highland Park after a month's absence, two weeks having been spent in the Valley of Virginia, visiting the Natural Bridge, the Luray Cave and other places of interest, and the remaining two weeks in North Carolina, visiting her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Fontaine.

Mr. Campbell Returns.
John Monroe Campbell, Jr., will arrive on Wednesday, retiring from the United States Army, to make his home in this city. During Mr. Campbell's stay in the army he has been stationed at Forts Slocum and Madison, N. Y. From the standing army he was transferred to the Artillery Corps at Fortress Monroe, from which place he gets his honorable discharge.

Miss Robinson Lends German.
One of the prettiest and most delightful geraniums of the season was held recently in Southern Virginia.

The geranium was led by James Catlin, with Miss Mabel Robinson, of Danville. Miss Robinson is well known in Richmond, where she has been the much-admired guest of the Misses Jones on South Third Street. Those dancing were: James Catlin with Miss Mabel Robinson, Miss Annie Greene Mullins with Archie Gray, of Danville; Miss Rachel Garrett, of Salem, with John A. Brown; Miss Eleanor Mullins with P. S. Barrow; Miss Gretchen Kline, of Salem, with Hugh Dyer; Miss Hattie Barrett with J. D. Sparrow; Miss Laurie Barrett with W. B. Pannell; Miss Ellie Walker with W. T. Williamson; Miss Nell Mullins with Marion Robinson of Danville; Miss Kathallen Sparrow and Louis Carter; Miss Roy Smith with Rives Brown; Miss Laura Butler with John Ligon; Miss Katherine Reeves with H. A. Ford; Miss Lucy Brown with Harry Maury; Miss Rose Sparrow with H. G. Mullins, Jr., and others.

Stages—R. B. Sempie, J. W. Carter, Jr., Robert Kearfott, J. W. Hamilton, and C. S. Williamson.

Chaperons—Colonel and Mrs. Rucker, Mr. and Mrs. Barrett, and Mrs. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gravely, A. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gravely, Mrs. H. G. Mullins and Miss Fill Gravely.

Music was furnished by an Italian orchestra.

In and Out of Town.
Dr. W. S. Gordon has returned to the city from Nimrod Hall.

Miss Lizzie Archer has returned to Richmond after a visit to Mrs. J. S. Benson in Staunton.

Miss Floyd is the guest of her aunt, Miss Eva Taylor, 210 East Grace Street. Miss Floyd is a graduate of the Woman's College, of this city.

MEN IN CITY COUNCIL

CHARLES H. WILTSHIRE.

Charles H. Wiltshire, of Jefferson Ward, a contracting painter, has served several terms in the lower branch of the City Council. He is known as a quiet man, with little to say on the floor, in sharp contrast to the other representatives of his ward in the lower branch, all of whom are talkers. Mr. Wiltshire, however, is active in his committee work, regular in attendance, and is a man not easily swayed from his position by the outbursts of his associates. He is a member of the Committee on Light and Electricity, and has given much time to studying the operation of the City Gas Works and the preliminary details of construction of the electric plant.

13.—Announcement is made of the approaching wedding of Miss Martha Goodwin Griggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Griggs, of Petersburg, to M. Carter Hall, formerly of this city, and now of Petersburg, to take place in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Petersburg, on the evening of October 26.

Philhower—Jackson.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau.
SUFFOLK, VA., September 13.—Miss Ethel Lee Jackson, eighteen years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward E. Jackson, was married last evening to Jacob E. Philhower, son of a prominent lumber merchant. The ceremony was celebrated at the bride's home.

NEW BISHOP COADJUTOR.

Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, D. D., to Be Inducted at Alexandria.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ALEXANDRIA, VA., September 13.—Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, D. D., will be consecrated as bishop coadjutor of the Diocese of Virginia at Christ Protestant Episcopal Church October 20, in the presence of a distinguished gathering.

Bishop William C. Doane, bishop of Albany, N. Y., will preach the ordination sermon. Other participating clergymen include: Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle, of Missouri; Bishop Robert A. Gibson, of Virginia; Bishop Alfred M. Randolph, of the Southern Diocese of Virginia; Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, bishop coadjutor of Southern Virginia; Bishop George W. Peterkin, of West Virginia; Bishop W. L. Gravitt, and others.

As a native of Alexandria, Dr. Lloyd served ably as rector of St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church, Norfolk. Thence he went to New York City as secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Episcopal Church of America.

Several times the position to which he will be consecrated next month has been offered him, but on each occasion he declined, owing to devotion to his duties in New York.

Dr. Lloyd has leased a handsome residence at Alfred and Cameron Streets, which he and family expect to occupy early next month.

POWHATAN COUNTY FAIR.

Efforts of Committee Bld. Fair to Keep Great Success.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
POWHATAN, VA., September 13.—The question of the county fair to be held here September 25 has been worked with every prospect of success. The exhibit committee is greatly encouraged at the interest farmers have taken. The exhibits will be fine and numerous, and there will be addresses by able speakers on education and agriculture. Other features include a game of baseball. A brass band will furnish music. The farmers will bring baskets and have family picnic dinners on the courthouse green.

FIRES IN LANCASTER.

Buildings Destroyed and Steamer While Lying at Vessel's Dock.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
